“ We are so very sad to hear of Sharon's struggle and death. Our thoughts & prayers have been with you & your family for many years & will continue as you grieve the loss of this precious one. Although Sharon's life was difficult in many ways, along with a faithful family & a myriad of friends, there were more high moments than low. She had the ability to persevere and enjoy her family, friends & so many varied experiences that, to complain about one's own ills, was ludicrous. I (Jane) grew up living next door to Sharon & Cathy & am blessed to have had that experience. Len, you & the family can rest in the knowledge that she loved you so much & appreciated all you did for her. 2 Timothy 4:7-8 says, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." This, in so many ways, exemplifies Sharon's life. God bless you all. Love, Jane (Schade) & Rex Henderson

“ I will be thinking of you tomorrow as Sharon is laid to rest. "In My father's house are many mansions. If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you and if I go to prepare a place for you I will come again to receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also." What a comfort we have that Sharon is now enjoying this promise!

“ Sharon is one of our truest friend and will be missed terribly. She never judged anyone and would always be there to listen or give her shoulder to cry on. Sharon's kindness was never limited to just her circle of friends, it went beyond that. You will always be in our hearts & memories forever.--Love to you and your family.

“ Leonard, Sherry, Nancee, Cathryn and Family: My heart is heavy for your family during this time of loss. Sharon was a sweet dear friend for many years. I know she will be truly missed, but thankful her pain here on earth is over. Even though I did not spend much time with her in recent years, I never stopped thinking and praying for her. I am thankful God put us in the same place at the same time many years ago so I had the privilege to call her my friend. My sincere condolences to each of you and your family. Love, Jeryl
