“Bernie, Dave and I send our most sincere condolences. To lose a spouse of so many years leaves an empty place in your heart but as long as you can remember the feeling of love you shared, Shari will not have relay gone from you. All the love and memories you created are still there. She will live on in the hearts of all she touched. Love and prayers for you and all your family. Mary Lee

“*Dear Bernard, daughter Christine and sons Gerald & Timothy and the Landewe Family
Joann and I extend our sincere condolences and heartfelt sympathy in learning of Shari's recent departure to eternal life with our God and family. Aunt Virginia was married tomy mother's brither Gerald Sanders.
We hope it brings the family some comfort in knowing, according to Catholic belief and research by Bill & Judy Guggenheim in their book "Hello from Heaven," that life and love is eternal and Shari's spirit will always be with us. Our prayers and best wishes always.
Love Jim & Joann Marquart*

“ Mrs. Landewe was on of those teachers who left an impact on me. All teachers leave and impact of some sort but she is one I refer to often with my own students. Penmanship and the use of classical music in Bugs Bunny. I know it may sound silly but those two things come often to me now as I teach my own classes of 5-8. She was a wonderful 7 grade teacher. Although she is no longer with us her presence with be felt by other generations to come. Prayers for the family and for her soul.

“ To Shari's family. We planned on coming down for the Memorial Mass on Saturday, but health issues are going to prevent us. We regret not being there. I considered Shari a dear friend. We shared many happy times in Cape with she and Bernie, at their home and many times after Sunday Mass going out for breakfast. I remember once after Mass Shari suggested we go to Giant City State Park, for their brunch. That was the furthest we ever went for breakfast, but we'll always remember the fun we had together. Bernie, you and Shari will always be in our thoughts and prayers. Thank you for many happy memories.
