“ Sherri will always hold a very special place in my heart. She walked with me, prayed for me and prayed with me when my husband was ill and then later passed away. She truly was a friend that stood "closer than a brother." She cared so much for other people and shared the love of Christ with everyone. There aren't enough word to describe how she gave of herself to everyone. I will miss her greatly but I know I'll get to see her again in Heaven with Jesus.

“ Bill and I (Lynn) have so many fond memories of Sherri. She and Jack went camping with us on many occasions. One camping trip we took together was to Yellowstone National Park where Sherri and Jack taught Bill and I how to fly fish for the first time. Under the gentle guidance of Sherri, Lynn caught her first Rainbow Trout in Yellowstone National Park.

Sherri was a gracious, loving, kind, gentle, and Godly woman. We were so blessed to have been a part of her life.
