“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more.' (Revelation 21:4) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ Shirley was such a special person to my husband when he was growing up in Cape and later to me. When I wanted to read a poem for Jewell Cobb, at my mother-in-law's funeral and was afraid I would cry, she said, "We will wait.!" What a kind person.

“ I came to know Shirley as I sang in the 4th of July Freedom Celebration at First General Baptist Church. Had visited in her and Delano's home and enjoyed the themed bedrooms, decorated year round. So thankful for having known her. Later I would get say hi at Delmonico's at the old location in Jackson. Shirley is enjoying finally meeting her Lord face to face. Pray God's blessings on all of Shirley's family and friends.
