“ this is a poem but it will be printed as a narrative. Contact me for a true copy! I Am With You Always By Gabriel G Gonzalez Whenever you feel that you are alone And you feel that no one cares Remember, I am with you always With a love that we can share I know that it's tough all alone And you're trying your best to make it through the night It gets to you, it's hard and it's frustrating And you want to shout with all your might Now when you're at the end of your rope And you feel yourself fall apart There's a place that you can turn to It lies deep within your heart This is the place where secrets are kept Locked behind your hearts door The treasures of a lifetime Of life, of love and oh so much more This is where you remember The life and loves of yesterday Think of me wrapping my arms around you Still, I am with you always Never will I leave you Though the high seas of life may swell Remember, I am with you always Even to the very depths of hell

“ Patty, I cannot begin to tell you how sorry I was to hear of your loss. Our sons were the same age and I can remember talking about them and comparing things they would do when they were young....while we were cleaning in the ER of course. I cant say I know how you are feeling but I can imagine, it is going to be a long tough road to get through the grieving you are going to feel through losing a child. I will be praying for you and your family. You will all need to have Faith and love in God to get you through this. A lot of times we don't know why God takes some one away from us, but he does and it is his will. Now you focus on his wonderful children he left behind, he lives in them. God will be with you and your family Patty, he loves you all. With deepest sympathy...Marla

“ Pattie, I am so sorry for your loss of a son. I never met him. But through you, I knew him. When his wife described him, I knew he was your son! He was so like you I could tell! God Blessed you and Tom for 31 yrs with a great boy! I'm sure he entertained people and made them laugh till they cried. If he came up with stories like you and me shared, I know they were great when he told them! May God grant you, Tom, Trey's wife and his children, the peace, love and joy that you all need at this time. May God's light shine upon the whole family and give you peace in your life to come. I know God has sent His angels to help and guide you all at this time. Just look to the Cross!
