“ Steve and I were good friends at Franklin school from 1953-1955 (Grades 4-6). After about 50 years we reconnected recently and had lunch together to discuss our memories of Franklin School. I remembered Steve as a very nice boy in school and he obviously grew up to be a very nice man. We were planning to have lunch again in a few weeks. My prayers are with his family at this very sad time.

“ Steve was very easy to talk with and helped some of our clients who faced tax difficulties. He gave the IRS a "friendly" face and these clients are now on firm footing, thanks to your husband's sound advice. My thoughts and prayers are with you as I just lost my husband four months ago. “ I'm sorry that I cannot make the service. My deepest sympathy to the family. Steve was a terrific co-worker, friend, and gentleman. Steve helped me out many times as a veteran IRS Revenue Officer when I worked the Southern Illinois area near Cape. We talked as friends about flying all the time and he helped me understand many of the terms, formulas and gave much sage advice. His best advice was When it's your [self] that's on the line, you don't allow other people to tell you what you should do. You tell them what you're going to do and do it. It was my privilege to know him. He will be missed very much.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces.' (Isaiah 25:8) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ Steve and I spent many hours working together when we were employed by the IRS. He always had a perspective on things that made him a joy to be around.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family during these difficult times. I knew Stephan he would come by my office to just chat for awhile he was a fair man with a lot of common sense. God bless brother and may you rest in peace.
