“ To The Haupt Family, please allow this memo to serve as my fondest condolences in passing of my firend Steve. I have known Steve for 13 years and his passing was a complete shock. If this is any comfort please know that Steve has gone to a much better place, then the place he left behind. God hand picked Steve to join him and what's better then knowing he has gone home with our Lord !! Peace, tranquility and everlasting life. I know that Steve is watching over especially his family and friends and waiting for us to join him. As for his parents I will keep you in prayer as the healing process begins. Sincerely Victoria tovar
