“ Condolences to Steve's family. I am very sorry for your loss. Steve and I grew up together. Living in a small community of course everyone knew everyone else. We rode the same school bus all 12 years and took tap lessons together when we were really small. He was a little bit ornery as a young boy and I smile at thinking how full of life he was. He, Bruce, and Danny were almost always together. However, after we graduated over 50 years ago, we both moved multiple times in different directions and lost touch. It sounds as though he had a full life even though it was cut short. May you all have many good memories of your father, grandfather, and husband.
