

Sue Brock Leftwich

November 9, 1946 - October 25, 2016

Sue B. Leftwich, 69, of Cape Girardeau, Mo. went to walk the streets of gold with our Lord on Oct. 25, 2016.

She was born on Nov. 9, 1946 in Raleigh, N.C., the daughter of the late Huey S. Brock and the late Evelyn Ruth Kelbaugh.

Sue was also preceded in death and the two are now reunited, with Harry Lee Leftwich, her husband of over 31 years has waited for her; having also been reconvened with her brothers William S. Brock, Huey Sandford Brock, Jr., a grandson, Jeremy J. Spence, and a son, Charles E. Spence.

She is survived by two sons, James B. Spence of Cape Girardeau and Adam B. Leftwich of Raeford, N.C., both daughter-in-laws, Linda D. Spence and Crystal C. Leftwich, four grandchildren, Amanda Jenkerson of Cape Girardeau, Mo., Zachary Spence of St. Louis, Mo., Adam C. Leftwich of Raeford, N.C. and Elizabeth C. Leftwich of Raeford, N.C., two great-grandchildren, the oldest of which had coined her "Granny Zoo!", Josephine Q. Jenkerson and Charles A. Jenkerson of Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Sue was first and foremost a lover of the Lord Jesus Christ; a mother, grandma, great-grandma and friend to those that knew her. She had begun attending Cape First church in Cape Girardeau to strengthen her faith and enjoyed the fellowship and the services there.

In years past, Sue had maintained a newspaper route and had been a homemaker where her boys still brag about the tasty cookies and 'nanner pudding that were found in the warm kitchen.

The family would like to extend their thanks to the Visiting Nurse Association and Ratliff Nursing Home for all of their love and support in Sue's final years.
