“ *Dear Don, Debbie and family,
We are so sorry to hear of Sue's passing...such a special, sweet, Christian lady and a dear friend. We shared many great, fun, times with many laughs and shared tears.and she will always have a special place in our hearts.
May God bless and give all of you comfort, strength and peace.
With Love

“ So sorry to hear about Mrs. Hunt's passing. I grew up in the small town of Leadwood and knew her parents. Dr. Hunt was my older brother's (Rick) fifth grade teacher. I remember the Hunts visiting at our house. One of the Hunt girls bit into a waxed fruit from a bowl on the table; thought it was real. I grew up hearing my parents speak well of Don and Sue Hunt. Good people with good, small town roots. Sincerely, Jack Poston

“ My condolences to the Hunt Family. Knowing Don & Sue from church, I know how much family & church meant to her. She was a faithful member of Grace United Methodist Church and I know she will be sadly missed by both her family and her church family alike. My prayers are with them.

*Sincerely,
Greg Illers*
