“ Terry always welcomed me with a warm smile and a hug every time I saw her. She was a bright light of my childhood and beyond. God bless her, Terry, Jason, Josh, extended family, and all of us that had witness to such a wonderful woman.

“ We remember Terry first by the years she taught my son, Matt Aufdenberg. "Crowell" is the way he was taught to call his teachers at Parkview. She was a great teacher, very competent and caring. Later years we would see "Crowell" and her family at the KC Hall in Jackson on Friday nights, enjoying the fish meal as much as we did. She always took the time to stop and talk and talk to Matt.

“ Terry and family, this lovely lady will always be remembered as a kind soul to all. I loved our times together in scouting with the boys and thankfully she was the creative one. As we went through school she always had a smile for everyone. Even though the miles kept us apart she would gather a few of our friends for lunch and we would share fun times and laugh sometimes over nothing. Terry and Joanne Erlbacher had the memories still, I always laughed and didn't challenge their memories since mine were mostly absent.

A kinder heart I have never known. She never had an unkind word. Of course the boys may remember a few times a little differently as they were growing up. I am blessed to have known her and could call her a dear friend.

To all the family my heart aches with you. I won't be able to be at the memorial services. My thoughts and prayers go to all of you. I didn't say it enough to her but Terry I love you as a sister.

“ Dear Sister in Heaven I love you and miss you. You are such a giving and caring person and the earth is a lesser place without you. We had a wonderful childhood growing up on Ranchito Street. It was a great neighborhood to grow up in. On the lighter side it is probably a good thing you did not become a hair stylist as I remember as a child the bald spot you made on the back of my head. The brown shoe polish did not fool our Mother. For now soar with the angels and I will see you again when my time comes. And when that time comes if you want to cut my hair again that is fine. But we will need some gray or white shoe polish. Your loving brother Steve.

*To Terry, Jason & Josh & family;
You have my deepest sympathy. Rest assured that she is in God's loving arms now, whole and healed. Her kind heart and beautiful smile has brightened heaven. May you find the peace that passes all understanding during this difficult time.
