“ I already miss Tom. His friendship was both instant and life long. My earliest memory of Tom comes from a family reunion in 1978/79(ish) when both he and Kathy took me through my first waterslide park someplace around lake of the Ozarks back when we were kids at a family reunion. Later on in life he snuck me in to my first bar when I was earlier college age, but not yet 21. Then on the night before my wedding he showed up on my doorstep with a hotel trash can of beer. He swore it was a Knaup tradition to toast each other the night before marriage started. In all those cases, there was always a big gap between when he and I saw each other, but as soon as we were together, it was like we had been hanging out the day before. In each of those cases, he was looking out for me or helping me out. Tom was fantastic at making everyone feel important to him.

“ Karen and I spent a lot of time with Tom when he was younger-the sweetest and cutest little guy. He turned into a kind and thoughtful adult. Always a grin and a hello when I would see him at church.

“ Tom and I were almost inseparable when we were younger. I wish I could have kept that through the years. But life happens. We did keep in touch from time to time but not enough. He will be greatly missed. All my love to family.
