“ I will definitely miss my golf buddy. We worked together at LensCrafters for 12 years and developed a good friendship. Although we haven't kept in touch very much the past 3 years I think about the golf games and work memories often. Tim may have been a loner but he had a huge heart. I knew if I ever needed anything he would try his best to help. He could find things that were missing like no other! :) As his manager, we had our ups and downs and a few small fights, but at the end of the day I knew I could count on him to have my back. God bless you my friend. You'll be missed even if you didn't think people cared. :)

“ The pain of losing someone you love is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to death as 'the last enemy.' May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will have our enemy 'brought to nothing.' (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ You will be greatly missed, my friend. You and I had so much in common with our dad's being best friends and then you working with me at LensCrafters and all of those memories.
