“Knowing Todd was a real joy! Smart, funny, fun-loving and kind, Todd brought his own special magic to every activity. As the family “babysitter,” I watched him grow up and loved the loyalty he consistently showed to his mom, dad, sister, grandparents, aunts, uncles & cousins. He was the leader and always willing to share – whether it was his stuff, his time, his birthday (with Tonya :)), or his knowledge. I remember his patience teaching me how to ride his mini-bike and trying so hard also to help me with his skateboard. Later in life, I was impressed with his military service, his devotion to his daughters and the positive outlook he kept even after losing both legs. Patriot, family man and friend: he will be missed! With love and prayers for the family -- Sharon (Amelon) Mansell
