“ I had the pleasure of knowing Mr. Seabaugh during my childhood through his great-niece, Cheryl (Ford) Welter. I always enjoyed being in his company - he was a great Christian man. His sister, the late Bessie Ford, Cheryl's grandmother, was a wonderful woman as well - like a grandmother to me. Her son, the late Lloyd Ford was also a wonderful man. The entire Seabaugh (the late Jim) and Ford families will always hold a very special and loving place in my heart for the kindness and love they have always shown me and my family. Rejoice in heaven with the King of Kings, Mr. Tommy.
