This is so hard to believe. I'm so sorry Jeannie. You know I have always loved Travis. He was so sweet. One of my kids. I haven't seen him in awhile but the memories are there always. Being at the house the talks we had, advice from his second mom the pictures he drew when he was gone and the letters that he sent being excited for God. Oh and of course going to church with us. I loved him always as my kid. My prayers goes out to you all I love you always!!

“ Travis was always so polite and loving. It was always Aunt Peggy. You don't hear that from a lot of the younger families today. He showed his love for his family. So sad that his life was over so soon. But, God had a plan we will never know. Rest in peace Travis.
