“ Martha,
I was truly saddened to hear of the loss of your dear son. Just the little I knew him (and just reading about him and seeing his photo now) tells me he was one terrific guy. You had so much to do with making him that way and with giving him a wonderful, though way too short, life. When we were growing up in Illmo and spending quite a bit of time together (at least in the same general area as I was usually out playing ball or something), we learned that Christ died for Troas. You still do and always will feel the pain of his loss. However, be comforted today and in all the years ahead knowing that what we learned then is true today and always will be. Right now you can be certain that Troas is at peace in the arms of God. Hope will get to see you again at one of those reunions. God bless you! Dave Maring

“ I will always remember Troas from my time with him at both CHS, and working at Schnucks together. He was the most kind person I've ever known. We would always talk baseball and he'd always tell me how amazing I was at it, even though I wasn't much more than average. If there was a blueprint for being a good person, Troas was it. I am very sorry to hear of his passing.

“ Troas went to school with our oldest daughter and her husband, Jennifer & Chris Bradshaw. They enjoyed attending school and school activities alongside of him.
I enjoyed Troas when he worked at Schnucks. He always took great care of me while bagging my groceries, usually insisted on taking my bags to my car. He was a kind sweet soul who will be missed and thought of for years to come. So very sorry for your loss. Rita Crain
