

Vera Marie Trowbridge

August 28, 1924 - January 7, 2023

Vera Marie Trowbridge, age 98, long time resident of Cape Girardeau, passed away on January 7, 2023.

Vera was born on August 28, 1924 in Burfordville to the late Ruby Lange and Ralph McManus.

Vera attended Jackson High School. For the last several years Vera resided in Alabama to be closer to her son, Kenneth M. Trowbridge.

Vera married Kenneth E. Trowbridge during WW2 on June 17, 1944, after meeting him while he was in pilot training in Cape Girardeau. They returned to Cape after the war.

Vera worked as a teacher's aide in Cape public schools for several years, and retired from the Registrar's office at SEMO after 20 years service.

A devoted wife and mother, she is survived by her son, Kenneth Michael Trowbridge (Vicky Patrick); two grandsons, Jason Trowbridge (Nicole) and Nathan Trowbridge (Anett Kruus); and two great grandchildren, Eric and Ethan Trowbridge. Vera was preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth E. Trowbridge; and her youngest son, Lee Alan Trowbridge.
