“ My deepest sympathy for Victor and his wonderful family! Many years ago he and my Dad, Don Seabaugh were bestest friends as I was growing up, I am now 56. My Dad passed away in 1985 at age 49, but loved and cherished his friendship with Victor when we lived on South Hanover in Cape when I was a little girl. He even brought me a doll back from Guatemala that I still have perfectly intact, I keep it in my hope chest. He always was happy and had a smile on his face. When my Mom passed away in 2014 at age 66, I remember him calling me and asking how she was doing and I very much appreciated getting to talk to him one last time. He and my Dad are definitely hugging and sharing memories together right now, wish I could have been there for his service, he was an awesome guy, many prayers for you all!
