“ Chick & family, I feel such great sorrow for your loss. I know this has been a difficult few years with the loss of Bill and Chick being ill. Vicki being just a week older than I, always made me strive to be better than I was. Her time on earth has past, but she left behind a wonderful legacy in her children and grandchildren. I will cherish the video tapes of her and I as children, crawling and walking, playing together. Her light has gone from earth and now is in the heavens above. My heart goes out to all that were previledged to know this sweet soul. Rebecca Ann Rodriguez (Linebarger)

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Vicki and I went to high school together, she was a year behind me. We got to know each other in band where we both played the flute. She was a beautiful person and a joy to know. I do not know of any words to ease your pain only that it does not seem so now but each tomorrow will be easier.
