“ Pam and Patty-I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. She had great passion for people and animals. Your mom would always give our dog, Tiny, something to eat when ever she would visit your mom and dad (even though she didn't need it). I know she will be missed.

“ Patty and Pam, I am so saddened to hear about your Mother's death. I remember her with happiness and laughter. I was was just looking at the pictures the other day when you all came up here to Illinois and we all went to dinner. I know you will miss her so very much....it seems most difficult when you lose your 2nd parent. My love and prayers with you. Much Love, Your cousin, Mary Alice XO
