“ I might not have seen eye to eye with Uncle Virgil growing up, but as I grew up; I saw someone who I admired and respected. Virgil was always happy to see his family, he loved the out doors and being outside, he worked and took pride in what he did, he had a long lasting marriage. these are all things that make a great role model, but I'll always remember Uncle Virgil in those bib overalls and Ford trucks.... Love you Uncle Virgil... Jerry W. Jaco
