

Virginia Mae Schobey

March 3, 1932 - April 18, 2020

Virginia Schobey, 88, passed away on Saturday, April 18 at the Lutheran Home.

She was born March 3, 1932 in Cape Girardeau to Garner Reid and Virginia Yates Daugherty.

She married Francis Schobey on February 5, 1977. He passed away April 15, 1999. During their married life, they made and sold many wood crafts, traveling throughout the area to various craft venues.

Virginia was also employed for several years in the laundry department at the Lutheran Home, retiring in 2005.

She enjoyed gardening, reading and her most favorite TV game show, Jeopardy. She was also a fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. She will forever be remembered for her love and compassion for animals of all kinds. Throughout her life she had many beloved pets, particularly dogs and cats.

She is survived by two daughters, Dixie Crites of Jackson, and Deanna Ware of Gordonville; five grandchildren, Courtney (Kelly) Peterson, of Aurora, Co., Kaitlin (Andrew) Crites of Grapevine, Texas, Kacie (Peyton) Sims of Denver, Co., Rachel Ware of Cape Girardeau and Matt Ware of Cape Girardeau. She is also survived by one great grandson, Lake Peterson of Aurora, Co.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; infant son, David Niemann; son, Danny Niemann in 2014; and son in law, John Alan Crites in 2016. She was also preceded in death by four half siblings.

A private graveside service will be conducted Tuesday at Lorimier Cemetery.

The family will have a public memorial service later this summer.

Ford & Sons Funeral Home in Cape Girardeau is in charge of arrangements.
