“ Virginia was my "ironing lady". She was also my friend. When I dropped off shirts, we would visit longer than it would have taken to actually iron the shirts myself. She was a very good lady. Always talked about her Josh. I had lost contact and think of her each time I drove by the apt. on Clark . Most recently I wondered about her while in Hattiesburg. She was so glad to go there when Steve passed away. I am sorry about your lost.
