

Walter "Wally" Lage

August 19, 2010

Walter Henry Lage (Wally), 66, of Cape Girardeau, died Thursday, August 19, 2010 at Mid Coast Hospital in Brunswick, Maine. He was born the ninth of ten children on October 8, 1943, in a farm community near Jefferson City, Mo. to Andrew and Theresa Veltrop Lage. He attended St. Thomas Seminary in Hannibal Mo. and Cardinal Glennon Seminary in St. Louis, Mo. He and Doris Schomberg (Dori) were married August 5, 1967, in Jefferson City at St. Peter's Cathedral and they recently celebrated their 43rd anniversary. Wally served in the army in the late 1960s. He graduated with a master's degree in journalism from the University of Missouri. Wally began his newspaper career in 1969 with Winsor Newspapers in Boonville, Mo. By age 25, he was publisher of the Boonville Daily News and publisher of free publications in Jefferson City and Columbia, Mo. and in 1979 he began a new weekly publication in Terre Haute, Ind. He was president of newspaper operations in the Paxton Media Group and general manager of the Paducah Sun in Paducah, Ky. from 1984-1993. He oversaw acquisitions of several daily and weekly newspapers. Wally joined Rust Communications in 1993 where he was vice president and chief operating officer through the acquisition or startup of about 50 newspaper titles in eight states, including 13 daily newspapers. He was very active in the Cape Girardeau community. Among many involvements, he was a longtime member of the Lions Club and the Saint Francis Medical Center board of directors. He served on boards of numerous newspaper organizations and was a member of the Missouri Press Association Hall of Fame. He was a member of St. Vincent de Paul Church. Wally's faith was central to his life and something he was proud to pass along to his children. Survivors include his wife, Dori Lage of Cape Girardeau, two sons, Joseph D. Lage and wife, Beth of Chicago, Ill, Jeffrey Lage and fiance, Alyssa of Cape Girardeau; two daughters, Gina Jones and husband, Hugh of Murfreesboro, Tenn., Jenny Shaffer and husband, Jason of Kirkwood, Mo.; four brothers, Lawrence, Paul, Ben, and Wilbur Lage all of Jefferson City, Mo.; eight grandchildren, Jacob (10) and Katie (4) Lage; Anna (7) Andrew (4) and Matthew (1) Jones; Benjamin (8) and Alexander (5) Shaffer; and Kaden Lage (10 months). He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, three sisters, and a daughter, Julie. Wally was dedicated to the newspaper business but even more to his family. He was a mentor to many. He was always the life of the party with an infectious laugh. He loved golf, convertibles, and Cardinal's baseball. He will be remembered for his many "Wallyisms," such as "Throw the Flag" and "Truck's Leaving." Friends may call 4 to 8 pm on Tuesday, August 24 at Ford and Sons Funeral Home on Mount Auburn Road in Cape Girardeau. Funeral will be Wednesday, August 25 at 11 am at St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church in Cape Girardeau with Fr. David Hulshof officiating. Entombment will follow at Cape County Memorial Park. Full Military honors will be provided by Missouri Honors Team. Memorial Contributions may be given to the Wally Lage Memorial Fund.

“ Doris: was so shocked and deeply saddened by Wally's death. I lost Sam in 1961 so I know what you are going through. Just hold on to and cherish your memories..eventually, they will help you get through the rough times. I told our oldest about Wally and he remembered being at your home and playing on your waterbed...and I will never forget Wally's help in our first Sheriff's campaign...again, I am truly so deeply sorry for your loss.....
