“ Dear Dick and family. Oh, such a sweet friend from our growing up years. How much fun we had so freely playing at each others homes. There were many of us that remained close. We always tried to get get together when I was back in Cape. Several years ago (25 or so) Wanda, Jeannie Hobbs Springmeier, Sherrill Kinder Wright, Martha McIlhany Kendall came out to visit me in Denver. What fun and such happy memories. I'm thankful for having Wanda in my life. With caring thoughts, Didge Boutin Pedicord.

I'm so sorry Wanda has passed away. I have good memories of visiting her house and the other Engram house next door when we were children and there was a fun family church function going on at their houses. Our mothers were good friends thru Centenary Methodist Church activities, and, of course, there was Sunday School. Anita Allen Klasing
