“ Warren was the best friend my husband Harold ever had. I'm so glad we moved in his vicinity even if it was only for a short time. A giving, loving man that I truly am heartbroken over. You are in a much better place and we will see you again for ever and ever! Always friend. Much love Brenda and Harold

“ I love you Warren. It was always a great time hanging out with you and we had our share of fun times. You would share all that you had way before you had much at all to share. Loved your laugh and humor and I am going to miss you something awful. My heart goes out to Patrice and your mom Theresa, Sisters Tina & Jennifer and lil brother Larry Kevin. Warren, you are a legend and one of a kind in my book whose shoes will never be filled. Rest well my friend and wait on me with the rest of our running buddies up there who have already crossed over. Because of our faith in our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ, I WILL see you again Stewart Rogers

Patrice, I will be seeing you Friday.....coming from south Louisiana for a celebration of my sweet first cousin's way-too-short life..... It will be hard..... wish I could say I understand, but when I lost my mate, I had a 3 months to prepare; you didn't.....so I cannot say I understand what you're going through.....all I can say is that it gets easier, but may take years and sometimes there are flashbacks of agony..... I will see you soon.
