“ Dr. Hoover was such a warm and engaging professor, who knew how to really connect with his students. I remember encountering him several years after I'd graduated, and he remembered my name and greeted me with a hug; I was quite impressed by that.

“ Dr. Hoover is a big piece of the puzzle of who I am today. Although I knew that I always wanted to be a teacher, he was one of the teachers that touched my life at Southeast Missouri State University! I also had the pleasure of knowing Jo, while attending First Christian Church. I am saddened for the family because I know he will be very missed...but believe with all my heart that it is really "See you later".
