“ Bill was one year ahead of me at Central High School. He was a senior when I was a junior. He was a friend and was just a good guy. I haven't seen him in over sixty years but his passing is still a shock. My sympathy and prayers goes for his family during this time of passing and grief.

“ Bill was a big part of our family. Married to my sister Martha for 50 years. Both worked together daily running their business. Adopting a son who required special care, they both stepped up beyond all expectations. Troas was a sweet and loving son.

“ Bill was quite a person to know. I enjoyed our conversations on Semo football and Cardinal baseball. A TKE brother, he enjoyed life. Rest in Peace. Tom Meyer
