

Willie M. Storey

January 4, 1938 - December 19, 2019

Willie Mae Storey, 81, of Cape Girardeau, passed away quietly on December 19th. “Billye” Woodard was born in Piggott, Arkansas, in 1938.

She lived in Sikeston for many years as the owner of The Classic and Affairs to Remember, and as the wife of Kenneth Storey, owner of Food Giant Supermarkets, Inc.

An inspiration to so many who knew her, Billye was an entrepreneur, a world traveler, a force of nature, and a great heart. She was a passionate friend to animals and an advocate for animal welfare charities, and possessed boundless love for her menagerie of dogs, cats, and potbelly pigs.

She is survived by Kenneth, her husband of 60 years, as well as their daughter, Stacey Storey; granddaughter, Natasha Storey Ford; grandsons, Shadrick Beechem and Nicholas Ryan; and their seven great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made in her name to the Humane Society of Southeast Missouri or Safe Harbor Animal Sanctuary of Jackson.

Online condolences may be made at www.fordandsonsfuneralhome.com.

“ I will miss her so much..she was a kindred spirit from the day we met. She shared great advice to my ever changing world and I hope I gave her joy sharing our love for our pets. I know she's smiling in the after life because she's with her friends, family and animals so loved so much.

“ Mr. Storey, Stacy and family,

My heart is filled with much sadness at this time. Please know that you all are in my many thoughts and prayers. May God's loving arms surround you at this time and during the coming days.

Billye was a very special friend, I loved to visit with her, even though we were not able to get together very often the last few years. She will always have a special place in my heart.
