“ Our heartfelt condolences on losing Mrs. Crampton. She was my daughter’s first grade teacher at Franklin. She always was so kind to me and my daughter, who had many challenges to overcome. Jenny still remembers that she put bobby pins on Jenny’s clothing to reward her for good behavior and gave her the attention and encouragement she needed. We have never forgotten Mrs. Crampton. What a wonderful person!

Mrs. Crampton and I served with other Cape teachers in many ways through the local Cape Girardeau Community Teachers Association # 1 and the Missouri State Teachers Association. I always enjoyed her dry sense of humor. Gerald Richards
