

Zaelynn Wiseman

February 10, 2009 - October 13, 2020

Zaelynn "Zae" Deshawn Wiseman , 11, of Maryland Heights, Missouri was born to Garneisha Terry and Floyd Wiseman on February 10th, 2009 in Cape Girardeau, MO. He was baptized at an early age at New Bethel Baptist Church under Reverend Joseph Cotton. His early childhood was spent between Cape Girardeau and St. Louis, MO. He was a lively and inquisitive child with a thirst for knowledge. He was very talkative and social with almost everyone.

Zaelynn received most of his education in the Parkway School District where he graduated from McKelvey Elementary School and was a 6th Grader at Parkway Northeast Middle School in Creve Coeur, MO. In school, his favorite subject was math and he was known as a spirited and loving classmate. Zaelynn loved dinosaurs and had aspirations of becoming a paleontologist. He had an appreciation for Asian culture and learned to speak Cantonese at an early age. He also mastered using chopsticks and loved sushi. Zaelynn cared deeply for all animals. He loved the outdoors and enjoyed bike riding, skateboarding, singing and swimming.

On Tuesday, October 13th, 2020, Zaelynn, already an angel here on earth, was given his eternal wings.

Services will be private for the family only with burial at Fairmount Cemetery in Cape Girardeau.

“ Zaelynn, I am the lucky one, we are the blessed ones, to have loved you, hugged by you, and watched you grow into a handsome bow-tie-wearing young man. You were one incredible kid! Your contagious smile, stories, sarcastic look, pockets full of fun, and most of all hugs that could turn around anyone’s day...you hold a very special place in my heart ❤️ #alwaysadragon
